

RADICAL REPORT

I want to thank all of you who prayed for me last month when I spoke at the Women’s Event at Calvary Christian Center in Yuba City. What a wonderful time of ministry as I was able to share my journey these last two years. One message I really want to convey is a message of hope. Hope keeps us going. Hope breaks despair and breathes life into our dreams. God is the God of hope. “Faith is the substance of things hoped for...” (Hebrews 11:1).

There are times in life when we feel anonymous and sometimes even wonder if God has forgotten us. Prayers are still unanswered, our life is still a struggle, or maybe family or friends have abandoned us. I want to assure you that God will never abandon us. As a matter of fact, He does not forget us. He is fully aware of us.

Noah, after being on the ark for almost a year, may have felt forgotten. But Genesis 8:1 begins with, “And God remembered Noah...”. Over and over in scripture, we read, “And God remembered...”. God remembered Rachel...God remembered Abraham... God remembered Cornelius, and God remembers you and me.

“With my friend, Beth Ford, Teen Challenge Director in Yuba City.”

“Can a mother forget the baby at her breast and have no compassion on the child she has borne? But even if that were possible, I would not forget you. See, I have engraved your name on the palms of my hands; your walls are ever before Me.” Isaiah 49:15

God forgets no one. He has etched our name on the palm of His hand! In the darkest or most challenging hour of our lives, He gives us the hope that He is right here. When talking about abiding under the shadow of the Almighty, Corrie Ten Boom said, “Sometimes it’s dark because He’s so close.” Everything feels out of focus, but He is near.

What do we do? We stay on the train while it goes through the dark tunnel, trusting that our Conductor will take us to our destination. And He will. The best thing is to focus our minds on who God is and what He has promised us. And call a friend if we need extra encouragement or prayer.

CAMP UPDATE: We are still planning our Legacy Summer Camp and will continue as we wait to see what happens with the Covid 19 virus and regulations. Should everything settle down, and we are allowed to have camp, would you consider scholar-shiping a student? Many people will have tight finances this year because of the virus shutting down businesses, and some students may need help getting to camp. It would be greatly appreciated! We’ll keep you posted! In the meantime, wash your hands, stay vigilant, trust God, and not give in to crippling fear. I’m putting my faith in God even though my home entry-way is full of Lysol and Clorox wipes! Let’s keep praying for our nation and the end of this virus all around the world!
